Following the release of LPP.2 and the associated HELAA documents, I write to advise you of an error in the allocation of a site between the Parishes of Baulking and Uffington. The specific details are: Look at the site listings for Uffington, in the HELAA Appendices Part.5, at pages 15 and 16 specifically. Page 15 is the copy of the Submitted Site Reference document, this being V200, with the HELAA reference UFFI 13, for Uffington Trading Estate. On page 16, this is shown on the map. The Uffington Trading Estate is actually in Baulking Parish. This will be confirmed by your Planning Department colleague, Katie Cook, as we are currently dealing with an application for industrial units on this site.
