I would like to state my formal objection to the Local Plan proposed by the Vale of the White Horse District Council, while they should be commented for trying to rise to the government guidelines and targets, I feel their decision not to challenge theses targets and simply take them as given and to remove great swaths of the green belt, in particular the Land surrounding North Abingdon, Radley and Kennington, is flawed in all aspects and will not maintain the character, history and charm of the Vale.
