I think that the preparation of the Local Plan and its publication has been shoddily carried out. The original plan was amended and published only six weeks ago. It was only then that it was discovered that whole areas of green belt in Cumnor had been removed. There have been no negotiations or meetings with the Parish Council or the local community. This was compounded with a short period of response running up to Christmas, (when people have other things to do) and the whole response process is so complicated that it defeats most people.
