The Green Belt review has failed to take into account local community views, no consultation was carried out in the local community of Wootton and no representations were sought or allowed. The whole purpose of the Green Belt as stated in the Local Plan is to prevent urban sprawl and to maintain the unique identity of rural villages. If the land identified in Wootton village was to be removed from the Green Belt then development would inevitably follow and this would lead to the gradual merging of a number of villages between Cumnor and Abingdon. The local infrastructure is not sufficient to meet new housing demands. In addition there are a number of brown field sites around Wootton and other villages all of which could be used for development without the need to destroy the Green Belt around the village and Abingdon and Oxford.
